

NUMBER OF PROJECT BENEFICIARIES USING (PUBLIC OR PRIVATE) EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

Indicator Information for Results Framework
Indicator name	Number of project beneficiaries using (public or private) employment services
	Related indicators: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Increase of number of project beneficiaries using public employment services (percentage)</li> </ul>
Unit of measure	Number
Baseline	Non-zero
Definition	Public or private providers of employment services match jobs seekers with job opportunities through (I) provision of information about the labor market; (II) assistance with job search and provision of placement services; (III) administration of a variety of labor market programs. May also be referred to as labor intermediation services or a labor market observatory. Project beneficiaries: all direct beneficiaries of the respective project component
Source of definition	ILO, Employment for Social Justice and Fair Globalization, Overview of ILO programs, accessed on April 18, 2017: http://www.oit.org/wcmsp5/groups/public/---ed_emp/documents/publication/wcms_140947.pdf
Guidance
For which types of projects?	For projects aiming to better connect job seekers with job opportunities through public employment services.
Options for disaggregation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Disaggregate by gender of beneficiaries</li> <li>- Disaggregate by age of beneficiaries – e.g. youths (definition may vary by country)</li> </ul>
Relevant Jobs outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Job access</li> </ul>
Project examples	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Kazakhstan Skills and Jobs project (P150183). Indicator 1: Number of unemployed people registered at the Employment Center or Employment Unit (Number). Indicator 2: Number of unproductively self-employed people registered at the Employment Center or Employment Unit</li> <li>- Azerbaijan Social Protection Development (P105116). Indicator: 40% of job seekers, as reported by the Labor Force Survey, served by the National Employment Service</li> <li>- Argentine Republic Lifelong Learning and Training Project (P095514). Indicator: Number of youth receiving employment services</li> </ul>
Questions for Data Collection
(3.10)	Do you use employment services to find a job?	YES	1	▶	END INTERVIEW
		NO	2	▶
Data Processing and Aggregation
= Σ Q3.10 [1]						